

1 DELEGATE BOTHE: I have no control over the
2 questions. I would be delighted to sit down.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Groh.

4 DELEGATE GROH: Delegate Bothe, do you sub-
5 scribe to the basic premise--

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

7 DELEGATE BOTHE: You are talking about property
8 rights?

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Groh.

10 DELEGATE GROH: Delegate Bothe, do you sub-
11 scribe to the basic premise that the function of the declar-
12 ation of rights is to set out those rights which the 13 individuals hold secure as against governmental inter-
14 ference, or transgression?

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

16 DELEGATE BOTHE: No, I don't fully subscribe to 17 that precept. I think that the declaration of rights is 18 an instrument intended to protect the individual in his
19 relationships with other individuals which the state
20 ultimately must regulate.

21 I do not feel that the declaration of rights
